REPORTAGES IN THE "REFORMS" NEWSPAPER ABOUT VLADIMIR N. KANAZIREV'S PARTICIPATION IN THE NATIONAL-LIBERATION STRUGGLES OF THE BULGARIAN SOCIETY UNTIL 1903

Elena Chalganova

The present scientific information follows the participation of the distinguished activist and member of IMOC (Internal Macedonian-Odrin Committee) - Mr. Vladimir Kanazirev in the city of Razlog - his activities in the struggle for liberation and unification, posted in Journal of the „Reforms“ newspaper.

The analysis includes the period from the creation of the „Reforms“ newspaper, a printed organ of the IMOK, during the years from 1899 till 1903, listed in the main title.

The accent is focused mainly on the rough years of 1902 and 1903, when consistently pushed the Gornodzhumaisko and Iilindensko-Preobrazhensko uprisings. The role of Vladimir Kanazirev in these armed uprisings of the Bulgarian people under Turkish rule in Macedonia, is substantially described from reporters of "Reforms" newspaper.
