THE CHURCH AND EDUCATIONAL MOVEMENT IN MACEDONIA REFLECTED IN THE PERIODICAL PRESS IN THE 50S - 70S OF THE 19TH CENTURY

Elena Alexandrova

Macedonian Bulgarians not only revealed their pain from the Greek spiritual tyranny, but also expressed their excitement and joy inspired from the revival of the Bulgarian culture in the region on the pages of periodical press from that time.

In the announcement the increasing educational and spiritual uplift in Macedonia is emphasized.

The foundation of new schools, the struggle for Bulgarian churches and priests and the resistance to the Greek clergy find expression on the pages of the Bulgarian revival newspapers: „The Tsarigrad newspaper“, „Macedonia“, „Liberty“, „Independence“, „The Danube swan“ and others.
