

The first part of the book is devoted to a general description of the country, its climate, soil, and productions. The second part contains a detailed account of the principal cities, towns, and villages, with their respective histories, customs, and manners. The third part treats of the trade and commerce of the country, and the fourth part concludes with a list of the principal authors and writers who have treated of the country in general, and of the particular parts of it.
