

The image shows a single page from an old handwritten manuscript. The page is filled with musical notation on four-line staves. Each staff begins with a large vertical stem and a horizontal stroke, followed by a series of vertical stems with horizontal strokes of varying lengths. Below the staves, there are approximately ten lines of text in a cursive, Gothic-style script. The text appears to be lyrics or titles corresponding to the music. The paper is yellowed and shows signs of age and wear.
